Boys with Particular Needs

Evening seminar presented by Ian Lillico

Date: Monday 27th March, 2017

Time: 4:00pm - 8:00pm

Venue: Flagstaff Hill Golf Club
Memford Way
Flagstaff Hill, SA 5159

This seminar is for Teachers, Parents, Teacher Assistants, Administrators in Primary & Secondary Schools and all professionals who work with boys.

This seminar will explore teaching, motivating and managing boys with particular needs in schools, at home and in specialist centres. There will be an emphasis on Autism and ADHD but other needs including CAPD, ODD, grief and family dysfunction will be covered.

Ian will discuss the role of medication, diet, exercise and many other techniques in the management and treatment of these boys.

The aim of this seminar is to give all professionals and parents who deal with boys from birth to age 25, a fuller understanding of these special children and the tools to help them achieve their maximum potential.
